

Hardinghaus Family Makes Tour During Easter Week Vacation

By Beverly Dyer
FA 8-1380
The Easter holidays gave the C. B. Hardinghaus family, of 808 Fonthill, a chance to take a much desired trip. They spent the entire week touring the area from Boulder Dam, through both Bryce and Zion National Parks, and south to Grand Canyon. While enroute, they took time to view the Pueblo ruins at one of the Indian reservations.

Skating in the High Sierras, was the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harestad and sons, Greg and Curt, of 2849 Onrado, for the Easter week. The week-end before the trip Mr. and Mrs. Harestad could be found sunbathing in Palm Springs.

Easter breakfast was served at the Wayne Norman home, at 1109 Cranbrook. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkin and sons, Greg and Larry; Mrs. Perkin's mother, Mrs. Jorgenson of Palo Alto, and Mr. and Mrs. William Crocker and daughters, Patty and Beverly; and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Paten and son, Mark. The children enjoyed an egg hunt in the yard after the delicious breakfast was served.

There must have been many family gatherings on Easter. A gay one reported was that of the Robert Hagenbaugh's, who live at 1011 Felbar. The beautiful weather permitted the dinner to be served in the patio, which facilitated the seating of the many guests. Those in attendance were Mrs. Hagenbaugh's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Steven and family of Van Nuys; their mother, Mrs. Cloisen Harman, of Los Angeles; Hagenbaugh's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Abreu, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. William McDade and family of Torrance, Mrs. Hagenbaugh Sr. and an aunt now visiting here, Mrs. Mae Green.

Friends in Long Beach entertained the Woody Strohmman family, of 1014 Felbar on Easter Sunday.

On March 31, a surprise shower was held at the home of Mille Galyardt, of 923 Felbar for Mrs. Ed Rankin, who resides at 914 Felbar. She was assisted by Lorraine Berning and Lucille Gonta. The guest list included: Fran Meier, Eleanor Wilmore, Ruth Coroughton, Lola Kelley, Donna Truesdell, Ethel Strohmman, Loretta Wells, Ruth Mohr, Jerry Weisland, Ester D'Ornelos, Mildred McDade, Jean Hagenbaugh, Phyllis McDougall, Mollie Borg, Dorothy Columbo, Margaret Newsome and Leslie Focha. The lovely cake had been molded in the shape of a cradle. Individual nut cups were also made like miniature cradles.

The Don Hughes, of 1122 Felbar, are proudly announcing the birth of a daughter, Jecelyn Marie on April 8. The little lady weighed 8 lbs., 13 oz., so can't be belittled by her brothers Tim and Kit.

Marty Fisher and her two children who lived on Flaysmith, have left for the East, where they will visit her mother until their new home is completed.

On April 3, Betty Jane Strohmman, of 1014 Felbar, joined the Methodist Church in a group of 40 other new members. Marvin Hiebert, of 2768 Eldorado was her sponsor. Following the afternoon ceremony, refreshments were served to the families and friends who were present.

Betty Jane was among a group of young people including Dick and Barbara Hiebert, Gerald Roberts and Cindy Routh, who attended the Easter sunrise services in Palos Verdes.

On April 6, the same group attended an MYF swimming party in Long Beach.

Barbara Hiebert who was 14 on April 8, entertained Kathleen Taylor, Sandra Tibbs, and

Women Form New Club to Give 'Helping Hand' to Residents

By SARAH R. HOOKER
FR 2-2388

"Helping Hand Club," has been formed by the wives of men working at one of our industries here in Torrance who unselfishly give of their time and effort baking cookies, cakes and pies which they sell with proceeds being donated to persons needing aid.

Mrs. O. Slatten, of 18329 Roslin Ave., is still surprised but deeply grateful for the aid she received from this group. Her son, Charles, who was hurt in a March 16 accident, is still in critical condition at Harbor General Hospital.

Capt. and Mrs. A. Gott and daughter, Cynthia, visited with the Delno Haris, of 4247 W. 180th St., over the Easter holidays. Wanda Haris, whipped up a froth of blue and white organza dresses for daughter Penny and niece Cynthia to wear in the Easter parade. Much gaiety and laughter invlived the household up until the time the Gotts left for their home in Santa Ana.

Vera Wright hosted the April North Torrance Canasta Lassies Card party at her home 1832 Roslin Ave. Emerging triumphant over three tables with first prize was Marion Terrence, with Claudine Blake winning the hooby prize.

Fatigued with their family Easter dinners but getting prepared for the party of three-year old were co-hostesses Therese Schuster and Kay Muramoto. This gay event took place at the Schuster home Wednesday evening.

David Reed Hooker celebrated his fourth birthday on April 11 amidst an Easter Egg Hunt which started off festivities with time off for a leisurely luncheon. Games were played with Shirlene Herring, Cookie Villegas, Danny Villegas, and Ted Slatten taking part. The guests went home carrying a souvenir with goodies galore.

Assisting with the games and luncheon were cousins Wayne and Bill Wright Jr.

With a glint in her eye and a smile on her face, Mrs. Kenneth McVey, of 3825 W. 176th St., emerged triumphant from the Torrance Memorial Hospital on March 31 with 7 lb., 5 oz. Cheyenne Rae, who joins the group of three musketeers in the McVey household along with David and Julienne.

Surprised and happy were the Cecil Davis family, of 18337 Roslin Ave., on Easter Sunday when daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nichols drove up in a brand-new yellow and green auto which the Easter bunny had left on their door-step.

Judy Balleros, Charlene Underdown and Dee Dee Underdown were part of the Bob Cole Majorette troupe parading in the San Bernardino Orange Show. Judy Balleros and Charlene Underdown went along and did a majorette and acrobatic routine for the approval of the Red Skin Lodge.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perrin who are the proud parents of their first born, Christopher Ray.

Arlene Poulson, of 18321 Amie St., an El Nido School eighth grade student, is having a bout with rheumatic fever and would enjoy hearing from her old friends and making new ones.

Not only sorority sisters but both presidents of north Torrance chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha are Mrs. Paul Herring and Mrs. Glen Runsted and they both live on Roslin Ave.

Most talked about matrons in the community are Alice Mackenzie and Claudine R. Blake, Reason? The beautiful jewelry they have been sporting! It's no wonder they were selected for jewelry demonstration.
